WELCOME TO BYOFL

PROBABLY AROUND 30,000 BYOFL LISTINGS HAVE BEEN SUBMITTED VIA THE WEB OVER THE LAST THREE YEARS, AND DURING THAT TIME I'VE ONLY TYPED IN 100 OR SO SNAIL MAIL SUBMISSIONS. WHEN I UPLOAD THE DATABASE OR (ESPECIALLY!) WHEN I TYPE IN A LISTING, I'M IN AWE OF THE CARPAL TUNNELING EFFORTS OF THE PREVIOUS COLLECTIVES WHO HAD TO TYPE IN THOUSANDS OF LISTINGS. I DON'T KNOW HOW THEY DID IT.

WHILE THE WEB MAKES THE PRODUCTION END OF BYOFL EASIER AND FASTER, IT ALSO FACILITATES YEAR-ROUND SUBMISSIONS (AND RE-SUBMISSIONS AND RE-SUBMISSIONS), AND ATTRACTS A LARGER AUDIENCE. IT'S A DOUBLE-EDGED SWORD. BYOFL IS MORE CURRENT AND COMPREHENSIVE, WHICH IS A GREAT THING, BUT THE AMOUNT OF WORK AND ATTENTION IT REQUIRES KEEPS INCREASING YEAR-ROUND!

WHETHER THE AMOEBA COLLECTIVE CONTINUES TO MAINTAIN BYOFL, OR SOME OTHER COLLECTIVE CARRIES ON, BEFORE LONG THE INCREASING SUBMISSIONS WILL BE MORE WORK THAN ANYONE IS WILLING TO BEAR. GIVEN THE LIKELY SCENARIO OF THERE BEING NO RESOURCE GUIDE AT ALL, FOR ME AT LEAST, IT SEEMS PRUDENT TO ROOT OUT THE SUPPORTABLE CORE OF BYOFL AND CONTINUE ON WITH THAT. SOMETHING IS BETTER THAN NOTHING.

HERE'S A REALITY: OVER 50% OF THE LISTINGS IN THE GUIDE BEFORE YOU ARE FROM BANDS. ELECTRONIC, FOLK, NOISE, EXPERIMENTAL, DEATH METAL, AND YES, EVEN GOSPEL GROUPS/ARTISTS SUBMIT LISTINGS. WE SPEND A FAIR AMOUNT OF TIME WEEDING OUT THE OBVIOUS MISMATCHES, AND EVEN MORE TIME DEALING WITH THOSE IN THE GRAY AREA (AND THE RESULTING "I'M AS PUNK AS ANYONE" EMAILS). PERSONALLY, I'D LOVE TO SUPPORT ALL DIY ACTIVITIES, BUT THAT IS AN UNFATHOMABLE AMOUNT OF WORK.

THE ORIGINAL CORE PURPOSE OF BYOFL WAS TO AID PUNK/HARDCORE BANDS IN BOOKING THEIR OWN TOURS. BOOK YOUR OWN FUCKIN' LIFE SAYS IT ALL. THE PROLIFIC BAND LISTINGS OVERSHADOW AND THREATEN TO SQUEEZE OUT THE LISTINGS DIRECTLY RELATED TO THE PURPOSE OF BYOFL. THERE'S ONLY SO MUCH FREE TIME IN THE WORLD TO WORK ON BYOFL, AND THERE'S ONLY SO MANY PAGES THAT MRR CAN AFFORD TO PRINT (AND BYOFL DOESN'T BREAK EVEN AS IT IS).

AFTER DISCUSSION WITH MRR, WE'VE DECIDED TO REMOVE THE BAND LISTINGS (AS OF JUNE 1, 2001). THIS ISN'T A PERFECT-WORLD SOLUTION, BUT IT IS A SOLUTION THAT'LL TAKE A HUGE LOAD OFF OUR BACKS AND ALLOW US TO REFOCUS ON SUPPORTING WHAT WE'VE GOT. THERE'S MUCH TO BE DONE: THE WEB DATABASE STRUCTURE AND INTERFACE NEEDS TO BE REBUILT/REWRITTEN FROM SCRATCH, THE WEBSITE COULD USE A REDESIGN, AND THE LISTING ORGANIZATION NEEDS TO BE OVERHAULED (ORGANIZING LISTINGS BY COUNTRIES WORKED JUST DANDY IN THE PRE-WEB DAYS, BUT NOW IT DOESN'T ALWAYS MAKE SENSE). AND I COULD REALLY, REALLY, REALLY USE A WEEKEND AWAY FROM MY COMPUTER.

-A RANCID AMOEBA

AS OF JUNE 1, 2001, BYOFL WILL NO LONGER ACCEPT OR INCLUDE BAND LISTINGS.

Shauna, #304 - 417 3rd Ave South, Lethbridge, AB T1J 0H2, Canada. 403-394-1318, janesays@telusplanet.net

So I decided, since no one seems to be doing shows in Lethbridge anymore, that I would lose my shirt trying to put on all ages shows for the kids. I have experience with putting on shows in halls & in bars (I booked shows with Will (my ex) @ the infamous club 911, Carole's Bistro aka the Moottree & lots @ the YWCA). I cannot promise the bands much money, but I can give you a place to stay and some food in your bellies. I do not book in clubs anymore (I refuse to)...the only shows I put on now are all-ages benefits for local charities so if you are interested in playing a show for little more than gas money & a good cause...call me.

STRAY

Aaron, AB, Canada. 780-922-3912, aak@pulp-fiction.com

$5.2/monthly. Local = Global. This is an odd one: haven't released anything in 3yrs so the pressure built-up, it's my thoughts on everything - and I know that sounds like everyone else... but we are all individuals and I think you gotta take an investment in getting yourself a copy... I would like everyone who has the time to read it. So I'm going to steal a lawnmower from Canadian Tire or something and pawn it off so you can get an issue for free.

201 SYNDICATE

Rosemary, 201 S. Syndicate Ave, Thunder Bay, ON, Canada. 807-345-8711

Capacity 288. Percentage to be worked out. The only place in Thunder Bay that's not afraid to rock in any way, shape and form! Always all ages. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

ANATHEMA CONCERTS

Chad Chabot, 39 Maplecrest Ln, Brantford, ON N3R 7T9, Canada. 519-865-3100, wang@superhappyfunhour.com, www.superhappyfunhour.com

After being fucked with by all those dammass veterans clubs and places like that, I finally have my own place. Capacity of at least 350/400 for sure. Payment works on percentage almost exclusively, unless you've got some clout or can draw with your name alone (most of our out of towners can't, so be realistic about it) and two or three out of towners/touring bands and two or three locals. You can't bring any alcohol inside, so you'll just have to go around back of the building and get loaded, then come in and enjoy the show. Aiming for 4 shows a month, work at about 2 now. Food and lodgings maybe. Depends on where you're from, how nice you are, and whether or not you smell bad.

ANTI-SOCIAL PRODUCTIONS

Graw/Mana Flurie, 286 Selby Rd, Sault Ste Marie, ON P6C 2P7, Canada. 705-759-4335, anti_social_productions@hotmail.com

Dedicated to the growth and well being of our local scene as well as helping any bands touring in the area find shows and a place to stay so they can get and save money for food and gas. We are tired of seeing our scene being run into the ground by sleazy promoters and incompetent assholes who don't care about the scene or the punks who inhabit it. Percentage: I'm sure we can work something out. Capacity: we can find what you need. Lodging: maybe. Food: yes.

ATOMIC ENTERTAINMENT

BOB GOBLIN

1227 Woodside Dr, Ottawa, ON K2C 2H1, Canada. bobgoblin@hotmail.com, www.theriptides.com

Need a show in the Ottawa area? I can help you out, or refer you to the right venues/bands/contacts to make the show happen. I play in The Riptides (we could possibly play the show), have a home studio (Headgear Studios) for cheap recording and help run Goblin Records. I don't look for a profit off shows, but if you're an asshole, or in a rock star band - don't bother contacting me. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

BOHEMIAN PENGUIN

Belleville, ON, Canada. 613-969-9555

Draws a pretty good punk crowd. It's a restaurant/venue, and has a really cool atmosphere. Belleville is between Toronto and Montreal/Ottawa on Hwy 401. Lodging: maybe. Food: no.

BOVINE SEX CLUB

Darryl, 542 Queen St West, Toronto, ON, Canada. 416-504-4239

Sex, drugs, and rock and roll. The Bovine has got it all. The ultimate place to meet gays, bisexuals, transvestites, junkies, hookers, bikers, metalheads, and even straights the odd night. It has a kind of junk yard theme, with stuff welded to the walls and hanging from the ceilings, very cool. This place is completely jam packed every night of the week, whether or not there is a band. Capacity is about 175, but I swear some nights they must pack 500 in there. Every night there is a DJ, from heavy metal Saturdays to disco Thursdays. There are bands here maybe once a week. If you can get a show here you got it made, free beer, and they pay really well too. Voted the "hottest waitresses in the city" ten years in a row. Never a cover.

COOL CAT PRODUCTION

370d Suite 706 Boul.Gr bert, Gatineau, Qu bec, Ottawa, ON J8T 8N5, Canada. fax: 819-243-2992

CORKTOWN TAVERN, THE

Dan Quinlin, 175 Young St, Hamilton, ON, Canada. 905-572-9242/905-529-4790

Hamilton is 1 hour from Buffalo, and 45 minutes from Toronto. A legendary rock and roll town, population 350,000. The Corktown is "Steel City's" only place for loud and aggressive music. Capacity is approx 250. Shows are held every Friday and Saturday night. They range from arty farty folk bullshit to punk fucking rock. Promo is usually done by the band if possible, but the club does its fair share of print ads. Guarantees are sometimes tough, bands take 100% of the door, which is their responsibility. Sound is great, as is the service. Jimmy from the Vapids books p-rock shows here and can usually hook you up with some opening acts, call Dan first. No all age shows, sorry kids.

DAMAGED PRODUCTIONS

Steve Beddington/Christian Schenk, 128 Erie Ave, Komoka, ON N0L 1R0, Canada. 519-973-0884, stevebeddington@hotmail.com

I will get dedicated serious bands shows. Lodging: maybe. Food: yes.

ELMACOMBO, THE

Spadina Ave and College St, Toronto, ON, Canada. 416-968-2001

The "Elmo" is Toronto's most legendary rock and roll palace. It's been here for 40 years and hosts all types of rock, punk, pop, blues, country, etc., 7 days a week on two floors (bottom-300 cap., top-600 cap.). Getting booked here is a breeze. Promotion is usually top notch. A ton of flyers and print ads too. They do guarantee depending on who you are and where you're from. Opening acts can usually scrape together some gas money, if you're lucky enough to catch the booker in a good mood. This is perhaps the best place to play in the city for "punk rock n roll" type of bands in T.O. Call and ask to speak to promoter Dan Burke, I'm sure he will help you out.

FASTIMES/KRONK

Toronto, ON, Canada. kronkbookings@hotmail.com

Any sort of music, ska, punk, oi, emo, hardcore, rockabilly, whatever. um, there's usually an audience so we can most likely get you some money, but no guarantees. So let us know if you need a show, okay? Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

JIMMY FROM THE VAPIDS

905-319-1350, thevapids@hotmail.com

Allright, listen up. Time to be more specific with my entry this year. I can help out punk rock bands. I am sorry to say that I am completely out of touch with the emo, hardcore, ska and new school scene here. The odd time I hear about anything happening with that sort of stuff, I really don't know who or what is in control. I can assist you with clubs, promoters, distros, and friendly punk rockers from all over this province and beyond. I do book the odd show myself if interested, but I do know a ton of people who do. The border can be tricky if you're coming in from the US, but I'll do my best to tell you the do's and don'ts. If you're friendly and somewhat respectable, I might let you stay in my basement, and record a demo or something. Call after 4pm my time.

Nick, Ottawa, ON, Canada. schnedfu@hotmail.com, www.geocities.com/schnedfu/

I book shows for touring bands and local bands in Ottawa. I've booked Another Joe, Jersey, Belvedere, Downway, Deville and Next 2 Nothing and the list continues. I have also done shows with numerous local bands. If you're a touring band and you need a show email me, if you're a local band and you want to play shows then also email me. Hell if you're lonely you can even email me. I play in a band that tours Canada and the U.S. so I know what it's like to get ripped off. Bands will always be paid fairly and I might be able to hook you up with a place to crash. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

Hi I do this for the fun and for the kids. If you want me to book a show for you, if you want me to hang flyers up, if you want me to review or distribute your music, I will. Just e-mail me and tell me what you want to go down and I'll see what I can do. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

NIGHTMARE ON ELM

724 Elm Ave, Long Beach, CA 90813. wynogrind666@aol.com

We are starting to throw shows at our co-op run house in Long Beach. If you are a touring band (punk, crust, grind, sludge, metal) email me, and we will try to set up a show, on weekends only. (Please no straightedge or pop punk, sorry.) We can help out with gas, and we will definitely provide food and lodging, as long as there is no bad attitudes. This is all DIY, we cannot pay bands and our house cannot hold more than 100 people. Lodging: yes. Food: yes.

PEOPLE'S PARK

Jessie, Dwight and Bowditch, Berkeley, CA.
People's Park is in DIY history. It was "taken back" by the people in 1969 and changed from parking lot to a park. Now it's home to a garden and a stage and that's where you come in. We want you to play here out in the open to a crowd of college kids, freaks, bums, x-hippies and transit punks. Cool eh? So.... It's been agreed with the neighbors that twice a month the park can have amplified sound. And I need to file a permit with the city (also for noise) at least thirty days in advance. I'm not going to pay you but you can set up a table for merchandise. I can also probably hook you up with co-op food and lodge. E-mail me. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

We are a punk band comprised of four friends with different tastes in music, making a sound that walks the line between punk/rock/emo like a barroom drunk at last call. We'd love to do the standard naming of three bands that we sound like, but that would be unfair to all four parties involved in the equation. Demo CDR out now and available through the PO Box for $5/ppd. CDEP due out in March/April 2001.

Place that bands can record extremely cheaply. We can offer 10 tracks recorded at once (i.e. a band playing together) and can add an infinite number of additional tracks and overdubs. Our rate is $12 an hour, which includes two marginally skilled engineers. Our only requirement as that the cash is paid upfront. Oh, and we are unable to accept credit cards or personal checks. That would make things messy.

Formed in mid 2000, Fighting Poor Productions has dedicated their time to bringing a variety of punk, oi, hardcore bands to the Lexington area. Using the "red carpet" method, traveling bands get a laid back, hospitable welcome with food, lodging, and a healthy dosage of beer. We are currently in the process of opening a bar/club to bring more touring/national acts into town. At this time we are booking shows through other venues (some 21+, some all ages). Lexington has a fast growing scene and would more than enjoy having your band play. Get in contact via email, telephone, fax regarding working terms. Lodging: yes. Food: yes.

JEREMIE PRYOR

PO Box 9694, Bowling Green, KY 42101. 270-843-0486, ectonine@yahoo.com
Bowling Green is a weird place to work in sometimes, but if you need a show in this area I would be glad to do one as long as I have enough time to work on it and promote. I will do any band that wants to come here but I will not deal with contracts or rockstars, so if you are still interested give me a call or send me a letter and I will do my best to help you out. Ska bands are a plus here. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

SHAUN KETTERMAN

Shaun Ketterman, 101 North, 416 Virginia Garrett Ave, Bowling Green, KY 42101-3559. 270-745-2123, expatri0t@yahoo.com

I promote shows in town. I do not own a club, I do shows in places like people's houses, record shops, coffee houses, churches and skate parks. I don't give guarantees, but I give the bands all of the money that the show makes. I don't deal with booking agents. If you're too lazy to talk to me yourself, I'm probably too lazy to find a venue and promote the show. Sorry. Anyway, I'm honest and responsible and I have a genuine interest in helping underground bands, so contact me. Even if I can't help you myself I can probably point you in the right direction.

STICK FIGURE

Frederick, MD. 301-371-9247, clash1978@hotmail.com, clash19780.tripod.com/stickfigure/
Band that doesn't like to put themselves into a certain genre of music. They rock hard and are mainly influenced by hardcore (stuff like Suicidal Tendencies/Gorilla Biscuits/Pantera/Korn/S.O.D./DRI/Gwar/old Misfits/Anthrax etc.). They have a lot of different tastes. A few people have compared them to Korn but they don't sound like it at all. To me they sound more like Anthrax mixed with Suicidal Tendencies with a dash of Godsmack. they are a band that's just getting started but play well together and have some talent.

All ages shows for 15 years now. New space holds near 600, but still comfy with our average 100 to 150.

We book struggling and established local, regional and national acts (in that order). The room sounds great and the PA is better than most. We're an hour north of Detroit, for those of you without MTV exposure and thus unable to book a show with Ritual (now an SFX™ operation). Fridays and Saturdays, with some weekday shows when warranted. Remember, our local bands want to play your town as much as you want to play ours. Show trades get automatic priority, get in touch. Lodging: yes. Food: maybe.

This doesn't mean they will automatically come in droves. I have worked with all sorts of bands & generally have good to great turnouts. Anything else? Email me sucka. Need a gig? We got it. But if you suck fuck off!!! No pop, emo, indy or even sXe. No offense, but that's just not our thing. We are very busy and only work for bands of our same ilk. INIT BOOKING

Steven Williams, PO Box 3432, Mankato, MN 56002-3432. 507-388-5738, init@init.zzn.com

3 years, 45+ shows, 140+ bands, 10 venues. I'm almost burned out on shows, and we're trying to open a new all ages venue, but we have an American Legion, so if you're worth it, I'll try to help you out to the best of my ability. You should be calling for shows 1-2 months before the day you want to play and promos/press kits help a lot. I've done it all: punk, emo, pop, ska, hardcore, screamo, etc. as long as it's rock. Prefer bands that call opposed to e-mail (e-mail=no response 90% of the time). Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

Food: no.

PHIL FIVE PRODUCTIONS

Phil, 710 2nd Ave NW, Austin, MN 55912. phil_five@hotmail.com

I am currently not playing in a band so I have more time to promote. I will take almost any style of music. Hardcore is big here, so is emo punk and ska. I hugely favor sXe bands. A usual turnout is about 150 or so. And I can usually pay each band about $50 after expenses are paid. I usually only charge $3 so you won't get rich. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

I book lots of smaller bands, big bands already have enough places to play, and turnout is good for all shows. Probably the most reliable place in MS. Email preferably before calling. Lodging: yes. David Alan Goldberg, 100 North Tryon St, Suite B220, PMB 136, Charlotte, NC 28202. kingdag99@hotmail.com, home.talkcity.com/PicassoPI/ozymondias99/
Real art created by yours truly, an old-school punk who knows. Keeping alive the mail-art/ marginalist tradition of Gerry Reith and Ray Johnson, and the crank-'em-out voluminosity of Pablo Picasso. Favorite subjects: human oddities, weird music, weird films, crypto-religious insanity, you get the idea. Exhibited in many fine and not-so-fine spaces. I can do album covers and personal works of art. Send $5.00 or trade for samples of what I've done. No racists, no sexists, no homophobes, no heterophobes, and no mean people in general. The suggestion is more powerful than the act.

Bands we've worked with include the Cherry Valence, Mercury Birds, Vaz, June Panic. Mooselodge holds up to 300 and has a smaller lounge in the basement that we can use too. We're a small outfit so we can't afford to give you any guarantees, but we'll work hard to promote your show and hook up opening bands, accommodations, etc. and do our best to compensate you & make Fargo a meaningful stop. Joe Biel, PO Box 14332, Portland, OR 97293-0332. 503-775-6943, joebiel@ureach.com, www.oh.verio.com/~lbil/

We have these bands and we put out these records by these bands. It's a bum deal really. It takes a long time to sell a worthwhile amount of records and then the bands break up. Then you have to start over again. We must be stupid. In any event we have records by Bedford, The Roswells, Cripple Kid, Flotation Walls, Rock, Star, Sometimes 7, The Unknown, Organic, and more. If you send me good records or demos that sound like old East Bay bands and could be serious about touring once a year we should talk. If you want to get some good records we should talk also.

VERY SMALL RECORDS

North America's most mobile atypical dysfunctional "label" since 1986. Bringing on the noise that I like regardless of sales for almost 15 friggin' years, eh? The source of dismay for the musically narrow minded "anarchist." Logical Nonsense, Ding Dang, Hot Water Music and Schlong on the same record. Scared? Good.

$1 or 3 stamps/quarter sized. "This guy has gone to the emo school of personal zine writing. But it looks like he was paying attention - this one's good. Free or trade/half-size. A brief collection of words and graphics, where I attempt to express my "political" observations, thoughts, and feelings... I won't bore you with the list of zine celebrities who write for it.

BORING TOWN PRODUCTIONS

Matt Franklin, 260 S. Bouquet St, Apt 201B, Pittsburgh, PA 15213. 412-383-6104, boringtownprod@positive-thinking.com, www.boringtownprod.com

Cover most of North Western Pa, and books any type of underground music but mostly punk/emo/hardcore/ska. We book at DIY venues. We give no guarantee, but we are non-profit, so what ever money is made (after expenses) is divided up among the bands. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

CENTRAL PA D.I.Y SHOWS

Jeremy Myers, PO Box 10296, State College, PA 16805. 814-867-1811, fax: 814-867-1855, diy@jumpstartrecords.com, www.jumpstartrecords.com/diy

Mainly do punk, hardcore, and ska. Hall capacity is determined by the size of the band, but we can accommodate anything from 50 to 1000 people. Mainly do shows in the fall and spring because I live in a shitty college town and kids don't come to shows in the summer unless it's a bigger band. I can still do shows in the summer, but you've got to get in touch with me well in advance. I prefer at least 2 months advance time for booking any show, but am willing to work less. I prefer no guarantees! I usually work percentages, but prefer to just give the bands everything from the door after my costs. Don't call without sending a press kit first. Lodging: yes. Food: maybe.

CHOWDA PRODUCTIONS

Tony, PO Box 1158, Mechanicsburg, PA 17055. blag1@aol.com
I do mostly bigger shows, but occasionally I'll do smaller stuff. I've done shows for Saves The Day, Digger, Weston, The Ataris, Bigwig, ZAO, etc. Email is the best way to contact me. I can do any size hall, and guarantees for larger bands. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

EASY WAY OUT PRODUCTIONS

John, 702 Herron Ave, Verona, PA 15147. feelthefreshness@yahoo.com, fly.to/mangledhand
Run by one guy, I don't like to deal with whiney pop punk or emo shows, so if you play that shit don't email me. The size of the venue depends on the popularity of the band. I deal mainly with the Pittsburgh area. Pittsburgh's a tough scene, so I can't guarantee a show unless you're as popular as the Templars, Sixer, or Aus-Rotten. Gas money's guaranteed, usually you get a lot more. Usually you hit a killer party after the show. Tons of beer: almost guaranteed. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

EMDEEPRODUCTIONS

Matt DiMarco, 365B McKee Pl, Pittsburgh, PA 15213. 412-681-2925, info@emdeeproductions.com, www.emdeeproductions.com

No guarantees, but I am a nice ass motherfucker and I treat my bands well. You will leave with at least enough money to get gas to get you to the next show. Guarantees depends directly on the size of the crowd at the show. If you email me or contact me for a show please don't ask for a date within 6 weeks...sorry guys. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

Sorry kiddos, The Zodiac has been shut down, but me (Orkenbjorken) and Calvin r working on doing basement shows very soon. We expect it to have it done by mid October and we will have shows a few weeks after that. Its very spacious, it holds about 50 plus people inside. It is at my aunt's house in the city of York, its very easy to find and plenty of parking. There is a special ladder we have so that there's even more room for the audience to move around in. Everybody (meaning bands and people) come in through the back. The stage where the band plays is pretty spacious as well and the ceiling is pretty high so u shouldn't worry too much about hitting your head when u jump around unless you're well over 6 foot. See ya soon!!

Billy, Charleston, SC 29406. surfnicaragua@aol.com

Free/half size. Focuses on punk/indie music, politics, art, and misc. junk. We do a rather large portion of the zine with interviews and reviews so all are welcome. Bring the noise!! We are the official zine of the 2004 Olympics.

UNSATISFIED

Tavish Donahue, SC 29407. tavd81@aol.com

8.5 x 5.5/monthly. This zine developed out of the local press's reluctance to recognize the indie scene in Charleston, SC. We don't take subscriptions yet, but it is available in many local record stores here in the Charleston area. What we really need is submissions. Several local indie musicians/artists have contributed to the first few issues, but to avoid getting stale (like the popular music scene here) we want new people submitting pictures, stories, reviews, previews, poetry and the like. Email for more info.

Chris, Austin, TX. 512-833-7465, hinkeypunk_99@yahoo.com

The best drinkin spot in Austin in my opinion. I call it the cliffs, it's a view of downtown not to close yet not to far. To get there take Sixth Street west past Lamar, then a few streets down you will find Blanco Street, take a right. Take Blanco past about Tenth St. you will find a dark street to your right, just before 11th or 12th St. go to the end and bingo, you can be loud & drunk, I used to go every night and never ever any cops.

Punk band from northern VT. We practice a lot but have not gotten to play out much. We are training a new bass player. We play all kind of music (punk, reggae, hardcore, thrash, some mellow stuff, and other fucked up chaotic shit). Our influences include: Op. Ivy, Millencolin, Dead Kennedys, 88 Fingers Louie, Slayer, Fifteen, MTX, early Green Day, FYP, Hot Water Music, COC, Strung Out, Bouncing Souls, and Sublime. Right now we are just trying to play as many shows as possible and trying to release an album (on our label). We are just a shitty punk band from the middle of nowhere. Anyone wants a demo e-mail your address and I'll send you one.

BUGGIN OUT

Shippely Watson, PO Box 4694, Virginia Beach, VA 23454. 757-496-0203, psychorecords@angelfire.com, www.angelfire.com/music2/psychorecords/psychomain

Buggin Out is about revolution. We have respect for beliefs, but we hold some of our own beliefs close to our heart and those that allow us to see the world through unstained eyes. Those beliefs and way of life have assured us that freedom and unity have a price which only, with everyone's equal participation, can they be achieved. Now: snotty old school pop punk was said about Buggin Out by Big (Crusty) Justin. [gotta give him the credit I know he loves that shit]. We try to keep it diverse but also stay within our boundaries.

DAWN OF... THE

Daniel Kaufman, 2348 Stribling Ave, Charlottesville, VA 22903. 804-977-5853, burgpunk@hotmail.com
East coast hardcore. Picking two bands we sound like (we are a cross between) is lame, but if I had too, we sound like the illegitimate love child of Boy Sets Fire and Hatebreed. Lets rock!!!

DEAD HATE THE LIVING, THE

Aaron Cale, 322 East Oak St, Covington, VA 24426. 540-962-0722, invisiboy80@aol.com, personal.cfw.com/~sushill/dropjaw

Horror-themed hardcore. Influences rock out from Equal Vision Bands to Botch, 80s new wave and The Deadlines. Unique semi-melodic hardcore. Energized stage show, known to occasionally set ourselves on fire.

DISENFRANCHISED YOUTH

Ike Sours, 47 N Marye Ln, Luray, VA 22835. 540-743-3805

Very offensive punk rock. Your parents would have a heartattack if they heard our music. People describe our sound to a chainsaw hacking small defenseless animals into pieces. We encourage our fans to do drugs and worship Satan.

DIZZY DIZZY MK II

Sean, PO Box 211, Dunn Loring, VA 22027. dizzydizzy@altavista.net, www.angelfire.com/va/DizzyDizzy
Churning out carefully crafted catchy songs with a nod to the glorious past of punk without being some dead cliched nostalgia act in another ridiculous uniform. We don't want to be your friend, we don't care if we have your approval.

DPW

Jason Gore, 106 Harrison St, Radford, VA 24141. 540-633-0476, dpwamy@hotmail.com, nrvalley.com/dpw

Maximum Rock And Roll. Sweaty, melodic rock that you crave on a daily basis. DPW is a band that proudly wears its influences on its sleeve, yet sounds like no one else. Compared to: The Soft Boys, Elvis Costello, The Kinks, The Clash, Sloan, Flaming Lips, KISS, etc. Tight vocals and loud distorted guitars. What more could you want?

DR. TEETH AND THE ELECTRIK MAYHEM

John, 3112 Corbeshaw, Roanoke, VA 24015. 540-774-5122, fax: 540-774-1964, skabus9@aol.com, www.drteethandtheelectricmayhem.com

DUNCE

Eric, Charlottesville, VA. dunce_cap@hotmail.com

Sometimes quiet, sometimes loud emo rock n' roll with lots of energy. Influences include such great bands as the (old) GUK, At The Drive-in, Braid, Lazycain, Last Days of August and of course Sunny Day Real Estate.

ESSENCE OF FROTH

Sean, 2617 Elon Dr, Virginia Beach, VA 23454. 757-498-3579, mindkiller@froth.org, www.froth.org
Fast, punk-rock. Not in a particular genre, been compared to old-school NoFX, Propagandhi, and surprisingly Youth Brigade. Looking to play anywhere. Planning on touring this summer. Give us a shout.

EXPLITIVES, THE

Nasty Nate Explitive, 23 Donna Dale Dr, Fredericksburg, VA 22405. 540-899-0696, the_explitives@hotmail.com, www.angelfire.com/boybands/theexplitives/

Streetpunk/oil/pogo band hailing from the Northern VA/Fredericksburg area. Our sound is catchy, sing-a-long, angst ridden apolitical blend comparable to such bands as the Swingin' Utters, The Cuffs, Blitz, Blanks 77, Dropkick Murphys, Lower Class Brats, and the Hudson Falcons. We have one album released titled "Kicking Back the Traces," and a short 3 song rough,... really rough self-titled demo.

FACADE BURNED BLACK

PO Box 13087, Chesapeake, VA 23325-0087. 757-623-9089, facadebb@hotmail.com
Emotionally charged heavy/noisy hardcore like old Melvins/Buzzoven meets Coalesce/Deadguy. New full length CD Pessimiser records. Previous releases on Rhetoric, Clean Plate, Satan's Pimp, Open Wound etc.

FALL GUY

Patrick Cassidy, 1554 Brownsville Dr, Herndon, VA 20170. 703-405-9406, fax: 703-450-9410, odb7774@aol.com, www.herndonva.com/fallguy

Punk, ska mixed with some of the oldies, it doesn't get more original.

FALLEN SHORT

Phil Anderson, 3547 Penarth Rd, Roanoke, VA 24014. 540-345-5155, fallenshort323@aol.com, angelfire.com/rock2/fs323

5 piece band, hard to classify but somewhere between indie rock, emo, and punk, at least that's what we have been told. Will most definitely trade shows, just contact me and will work something out.

FALLS VERSION, THE

Rock. Hold nothing back, rock out as hard as you can! As a band, we try to follow this to the best of ability, and well, do a fly job of it. Of course we will trade shows! We are an indie/emo-ish band, something like that, come see us and decide. We love you all! Rock...same thing we do every night, try to take over the world.

FUSE

Greg, 10789 Hill Dr, Moorpark, VA 93021. 805-529-2249

Very similar to older AFI material with our own recipe to create the perfect punk/hardcore. Our music is sure to have even your one-legged grandmother stealing your Minor Threat t-shirt and starting circle pits at Thursday night's bingo.

GOONS, THE

Serge Goon, PO Box 5648, Arlington, VA 22205. 703-812-5155, thegoons@thegoons.com, www.TheGoons.com

Punk rock n roll from the DC area, most frequently, but not necessarily most accurately, compared to the Dead Kennedys, The New Bomb Turks, and the Dicks. 2 7"s and a CD out on Torque Records and a second CD on American Punk Records. If yr coming to town maybe we can help but I'm making no promises.

HELL TO PAY

Karl Core, PO Box 3311, Merrifield, VA 22116. 443-255-4542, helltopay@deadliftrecords.com, www.deadliftrecords.com/helltopay

Angry negative old school hardcore played by 3 old, surly skinheads and some dude with purple hair. Think Blood For Blood meets Sick Of It All and Slayer. CDEP out on Recoil Records. Labels/bands get in touch for comps and splits. We leave the dancefloor bloody and breed hatred and discontent wherever we go.

HIDE YOUR GIRLFRIENDS

Mike Lawson, 3033 Monet Dr, Virginia Beach, VA 23456. 757-368-7466, hygmike@aol.com
Ska-punk, heavy on the punk. Six piece with two horns. We don't sound like every other ska-punk band, but if we had to compare it would be to Catch22.

HIP LIKE NORM

Peter. hiplikenorm@hotmail.com, www.homestead.com/hiplikenorm/main.html

Five kids got together and rocked. The rest is history. Emotionally and politically driven fast chaotic screamo mathgrind a la Dillinger Escape Plan meets Converge. Split seven inch in the final works.

JANE DOZ, THE

Matt O'Bryan, 5334 Airport Rd, Roanoke, VA 24012. 540-362-3693, greasepunk@earthlink.net, www.janedoz.com
Streetpunk/Oi (Lower Class Brats, Subversives, meets early LA punk), aggressive, fast, fun. We want to play your town, and put out music. We'll play for beer/free. Songs about liars, beer, working, politics, being stupid. We have a full length CD ($8), and a CD-EP (with live songs and studio) for $4. We also have t-shirts ($8), buttons, stickers and patches. Might be able to set up gigs, favor for a favor. We'll come to your town, have fun, and you don't have to worry about money!

MALFUNCTION

Nick Baker, 1311 N. Hillcrest Dr, Covington, VA 24426. 540-962-6222, lastselection@aol.com, www.malfunctionrocks.com
We are a 3 piece band. I guess we are a softcore or pop punk band. I'm not sure about how all these sub-genres work. We play mainly originals but yet we have an arsenal of covers from bands such as the Ataris, MxPx, NoFX and Millencolin. We also have a 10 song CD out (DIY) and plan on going back into the studio after christmas.

MARION DELGADO

John, Richmond, VA. 804-342-7473, marion_delgado@hotmail.com, www.mariondelgado.com
We're probably the best band in Virginia so stop looking. If you've ever been completely blow away by seeing band live it was probably us. Seriously we're so good. You should hear us, man. Some say we sound like Current, Indian Summer, or Ordination of Aaron, but we smoke all those fuckers. I mean.....damn.

I book shows because I like to, not to make money (because I don't). I do it for the scene. It's a feeling of satisfaction: to know that you got all these people together to have a great time. It feels great to have an awesome band up on stage, with 100+ kids dancing below without a care in the world. It's in that moment when you realize that all your hard work, all your endless hours on the computer, and all the money that was spent, is going towards a worthwhile cause. There is no better feeling. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

ZINES

ANGRY YOUNG AND RICH

Rachel/Cody, Beloit College Box 776, Beloit, WI 53511. angryyoungrich@hotmail.com
$1/4x5.5/8-10 times yearly. AYR...like the picking up of the wind; the sweet rush of a swallows wings; the lilting voice of a bird that makes one's heart soar... "Coo. Cool Coo. Cool!" I hear it! I hear it! Sometimes I am so deeply moved that there are no words. What is that sound, that glorious stillness before the storm? It is as if I were underwater, straining, straining...Who are you? What is this that you offer me...this language I cannot process in the same manners as English or Spanish...this magazine. It is really good.

99 out of 100 Profane Existence fans agree, except for the Matte Resist column in issue 16, "As the World Burns" sucks!!! If your sense of humor hasn't been too depleted from all of that sniffing glue while listening to horrible bands like Aus Rotten you will probably enjoy this. Features lots of short stories, guest columns from writers I deem good, and one not boring (unlike most) band interview per issue. Usually 24 to 32 pages, every six months. Issue 16 and 17 available, $2.50 apiece, or $4 for both (or a mix tape devoid of emo).

Formed in 1995. Their music can be described as an emotional and moody post-hardcore, somewhere between Neurosis, Unwound, Shotmaker and Lowercase. Following several demos, they released their first 7" EP (selfproduced) recorded October 1998 by TVO. The two tracks featured, "vicious" and "fog", are intense, thoughtful and heartfelt at the same time, which seem to be distinctive qualities of the brazen sound. One year later (January 2000) they recorded 5 songs for a 10"/MCD released on Snuff Records and Molaire Industries.

Ari Truekore, Jl. Cukang Kawung # 135, Bojong Kacor, Bandung 40191, Indonesia. 62-22-2516744, truekore@komplete-kontrol.com

Started somewhere in July, 1998 when the four of us decided to form a hardcore band with a fastdriven straightforward inyourface hardcore sound that we have gained in our growing process in the hardcore/punk scene that we derived from bands such DYS, Negative FX, Oil, Mainstrike, Kill Your Idols, Vitamin X, Mouthpiece and many others. Our mission in the first place was to set our local hardcore scene to be an active, more DIY and non-fashion oriented scene..which was a hard situation at that time to be changed. But now we have our own missions and goals, one of them is transforming our surrounding, our society to have a critical point of view, to questions what you have learned or possessed and to be aware on every aspects of our lives.

DUNGPEOPLE

Joe Kidd, 14A Bukit Ceylon, 50200 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. dungboy@rocketmail.com, dungpeople.port5.com/

The gigs here are not regular. A few small towns have their own network of people and I'm in contact with them, so I can help. Gigs also only happened on weekends, basically Saturday or/and Sunday held at nightclubs. Payment is not a lot since we work by equal distribution of profit. Lodging is available but not to more than four people. And we can't pay for your flight! If your band is coming around from Japan to Australia or vice-versa, then it'll be nice if you'd stop over in KL. We'll arrange something. Latest: Loads of gigs happening in most major towns all over Malaysia. Can help you in hooking up with the promoters in Kuantan, Seremban, Batu Pahat, Ipoh, Segamat and Johor Bharu. Lodging: maybe. Food: no
